An expert on the subject of tourism and a former senior executive for a traveling agency reveals why there is no need to pay any money for trip planning.

"Find out for yourself how easy it is to plan your own trip abroad, a trip that allegedly requires an expert's work, a trip of the highest quality with no planning expenses!"

On the afternoon of a beautiful summer day two couples left their homes for a trip to Poland. The couples were very much alike, both left two kids at home under the supervision of their grandparents, both were middle class people; both lived in the same neighborhood.

Both couples visited Poland's tourist attractions and stayed for the same amount of time. Both couples returned on the same flight back home. But there was one small difference:

One of the couples was disappointed. This couple returned with sore feelings of waste. They have spent 7200$. The other couple enjoyed their trip very much, they saw everything Poland has to offer and spent only 3000$.

You must understand that I am not only a writer of successful guide books, but I was once a director of a big traveling agency. I've learned a lot and had lots of fun. I have met many people who traveled a lot, and it opened my eyes.

During my years of work I saw many families, couples and single people literally, throwing their hard earned money away. It was only because they didn't know any better. If they could have only known the best way to plan a trip abroad, like I do.....

This is how the E-book "Guide for Planning a Trip Abroad – Poland as an Example" was born!

This guide is the true essence of my knowledge and contains the details of how to...
