Family Fun Hotels

Finding the perfect hotel to take your family away to for a short break can be tricky. Location, family facilities and cost are all important factors to consider when choosing where to go. Why not add some fun into the equation and stay at a hotel with themed bedrooms, making it even more of an adventure for your kids? Here's some hotels that have amazing and varied themes throughout their rooms.

Holiday Chessington Inn

Things go all African when you check into the Chessington World of Adventures Resort Hotel

This hotel is safari-themed throughout and gives you a taste of Africa in the middle of Surrey. On the grounds outside the hotel there is their Wanyama Reserve where you can see animals such as zebra and antelope roaming - you can even upgrade your room so you have a view of the animals from your bedroom window! If you and the family fancy one of the themed rooms you can bag one of the specially themed rooms for a little extra. Along with this great hotel, there is also the theme right on your doorstep.

Alton Towers Resort

There is such a huge array of themed rooms available here that you'll be completely spoilt for choice.

Within the Alton Towers Hotel there is a Sonic the Hedgehog Room, Sleepover Room, Peter Rabbit Room and a Chocolate Room to name a few! If the kids are enticed by a life at sea then Splash Landings Hotel with its pirate themed rooms offers much fun for the whole family. Whichever hotel you pick, the kids are going to love it.

Drayton Manor Hotel

Drayton Manor theme park are opening their own hotel this summer.

This brand new hotel is still being built but is due to open in August 2011. It is set to have a Thomas the Tank Engine theme running through it, which is in keeping with the Thomas Land they have at the theme park. Expect character breakfasts and a few themed Thomas bedrooms - essential for families with children who love the famous blue steam train!

Disney Paris Hotel

With seven hotels to decide from at Disney Land Paris, the tough part is choosing where to stay!

At Disney's Hotel New York you can step into the Big Apple, go to the Wild West at Disney's Hotel Cheyenne or stay at the Disneyland Hotel where you can enjoy character breakfasts. Even better its just a few minutes walk away from the park. Your kids are sure to love the magic of Disney at the hotel and in the park.
