

Published based on Get The Facts About San Francisco Travel

Get The Facts About San Francisco Travel

San Francisco has a lot to offer to satisfy your tour plan with its sights, weather and entertainment aspects which is why you must do your packing and plan your air and hotel booking for your vacation. This country stands true to its fame of being tourists' favorite. Although, there is so much to do here in San Francisco and there are several reasons that you should visit it at least once in your lifetime, but let us help you in short-listing. Following are some of the things that you should look forward to in this great city.

Weather:

The weather in San Francisco makes it very attractive to tourists coming from all types of climates. Throughout the year the weather remains moderate, without scorching summer heat or shivering winters. This temperate atmosphere lets you enjoy the sights and explore the city with physical ease.

Accommodation in San Francisco:

You can relax in San Francisco knowing that you will receive the entertainment worth your money. For your lodging you can opt for expensive luxury hotels or bed and breakfast hotels at an affordable price. You will find this city a place of opportunities. For this reason, make sure you have your hotel booking in advance as during rush days you may not get the room you desire.

Golden Gate Bridge:

No wonder this place enjoys worldwide fame. The bridge serves as the landmark of California generally and San Francisco particularly. This bridge, built in 1937 has proved to be one of those places, which comes at number 1 spot on nearly all the tourists, visiting San Francisco for the first time. If you want to enjoy it up close, you should opt for a walk or bicycle ride to the Golden Gate bridge.

Alcatraz:

This is a favorite place for tourists and must be added in your itinerary to San Francisco. Initially, it was a prison which has been transformed into a state recreation ground. You can reach Alcatraz by taking a ferry. Now it depends upon you, if you want to take a 2 to 3 hours tour or a night tour, depending upon your curiosity and budget. It really doesn't matter if you just visit the place at least once.

Fisherman's Wharf:

This is a great place if you really want to enjoy the taste of various cuisines of San Francisco and want to buy some cheap souvenirs for your loved ones back home. You should also make it a point on any trip to take some souvenirs home as memory and a gift for your friend and family. You would be able to get a clear view of the Golden Gate Bridge from this point. However, for experiencing real time shopping, check out Union Square.

Other attractions include: Lombard Street and many more.

You can also find this article published on Get The Facts About San Francisco Travel, and on the tag pages Bridge, Golden, golden gate bridge, Weather, weather in san francisco, worldwide fame.