

Published based on Great Historical Cities to Visit

Great Historical Cities to Visit

For all those history-buffs out there, Europe offers a divinely rich and diverse selection of ancient monuments, historical architecture and excellent museums .

Many would highly recommend Rome as a great European attraction for not only the food and shops they offer, but the historical value that has been left behind . The opportunities for exploration are countless; perhaps the best way to see all these sights is using the 'Hop-on Hop-off Double Decker Bus Tour', allowing you to explore the heart of Rome at your own pace on opened top busses, providing full 360 degree panoramic views whilst cruising along 17 stops of the most beautiful, cultural and evocative areas of the Eternal city . In terms of sight-seeing, there are quite a few options available for the traveler, they could go off and take off on a journey on foot, or they could opt for the dedicated tour bus specially designed for tourists. There are 17 stops during the ride at which you can take pictures and share with friends. There are guided tours for these types of attractions . Last but not least, the works of artists such as the great Bernini and Titian are displayed in the Borghese gallery and museum which illustrates their painting and artwork . Purchase your flights to Rome to witness the uniqueness of this city .

One more city to mention with a great historical presence is Paris . In Paris, there are many great beautiful areas to visit. The Eiffel Tower could be a good choice for a couple looking for a romantic dinner, and with a great view overlooking the capital makes it even more special. One place you need to visit is the The Louvre, a museum which is much visited annually by people worldwide. It has been said to be one of the greatest museums in the world . The Louvre contains more than 35,000 different pieces of art work for the public to see, it is a museum which allows you to learn about the deep history of France. The mesmerising city of Paris will simply blow you away with all their extraordinary attractions; explore this romantic city for yourself by booking cheap flights to Paris online now .

Last but most definitely not least is the vibrant city of Barcelona . Famous for its stunning architecture, it too offers a wealth of historical content. Armed with flights to Barcelona, you could find yourself gazing in wonder at Gaud's fairytale architecture, exploring gothic cathedrals with breathtaking views or taking a stroll down one of the world's most famous boulevards known as La Rumba . Additionally why not visit the attraction that shaped Picasso's youth, or even stumble upon the Fundaci Joan Mir, known to many as the top historical museum on the globe .

When it comes to decision time, it really doesn't matter which one of the three places mentioned you choose, those who love traveling will definitely enjoy the trip and most certainly be satisfied .

You can also find this article published on Great Historical Cities to Visit, and on the tag pages degree panoramic views, double decker bus, double decker bus tour, Great, Louvre, Museum.